Bow Lake

<https://archives.whyte.org/en/permalink/artifactwyc.01.241>

Artist:	Catharine Robb Whyte, O. C. (1906 – 1979, Canadian)
Title:	Bow Lake
Date:	1950 – 1960
Medium:	oil on canvas
Dimensions:	25.4 x 30.3 cm
Description:	The light and dark turquoise of Bow Lake is placed in the middleground. At the base of the picture, the lake is described by a horizontal stroke of light grey and by a number of vertical brushstrokes of turquoise. The vegetation in front of the lake, in the lower left and right corners, contains the same dark green, and light violet-grey found in the background. The violet-grey is used to indicate: the snow covering the dark violet-grey mountain on the right; the rock forming the more distant peak on the left; and a lighter tint of this colour forms the clouds in the upper left corner. A separate area of blue-grey clouds occupies the upper right corner.

Artist:	Catharine Robb Whyte, O. C. (1906 – 1979, Canadian)
Title:	Tack Shed at Num-Ti-Jah
Date:	1950 – 1955
Medium:	oil on canvas on masonite
Dimensions:	25.4 x 30.3 cm
Description:	View of a cabin with tall mountains in the distance. In the centre of the background is found a distinctive triangular peak covered in snow. The peak's exposed rock is coloured brown-grey. Two mountains, partially obscured by trees, are located on either side of the centre peak-on the left, a blue-grey mountainside slopes downwards and on the right is a rounded summit with a line white snow dividing the crown from the lower slopes. In the right foreground, a brown cabin (with a red-brown roof and an open front door) sits in a meadow surrounded by tall evergreens. To the left of the front of the cabin, a brown horse is tied to a wooden railing.
