Description: A young woman, identified as Barbara Spohr by Craig Richards?, stands against a neutral gray background that has been drawn over with blue and black squares. She is blowing bubbles from a blue bubble container. Mixed in with the blue and black squares are a set of clouds. Near her left shoulder on the right edge of the image are the words "the sky is blue". She is wearing a gray sweater and a burgundy corduroy dress with a gold butterfly pin over the right side of her chest, a gold ring on left hand, fourth finger, and a gold bracelet on her left wrist. Four bubbles are seen on the lower left quadrant of the image.
