Scope & Content:

File consists of 1 print of a sketch of a buffalo that was used for copper and bronze badge. These buffalo badges were used to mark paid entrance to the National Parks from 1925-1938 and were fixed to a car's front radiator with wire. This sketch shows a standing buffalo, a design used from 1932-1938.

Also includes the envelope the print was stored in. Written on the front are details of what the sketch is of and that it was given to Jim Sime from Fergus Lothian in 1977.
