| Artist: | Peter Whyte (1905 – 1966, Canadian) |
| Title: | Blind Date by John Windsor |
| Date: | 1962 – 1966 |
| Medium: | graphite; ink on paper |
| Dimensions: | 27.3 x 21.3 cm |

Description:

An ink and pencil drawing of a title page where the title is arranged as such: BLIND DATE In the foreground a male figure in shorts, knee-high socks and a cap, stands contemplating the scene with his back to the viewer. He carries luggage. Troops carrying weapons march in lockstep away from the viewer, and in the direction of the title text. Above the title, a tank drives to the viewer's right, with mountains and clouds in the background. At the bottom and foreground, text reads: BY JOHN WINDSOR. The initials P.W. appear in the bottom right corner of the drawing. This part is rendered in ink and enclosed within hand drawn frame. Handwritten below the frame in pencil is the comment: Excellent - think title "BLIND DATE" should be bigger, bolder, dressier. Add "BY" John Windsor. At the topmost part of the paper, there is a pencil sketch of a tank, and a comment: "NO" with an arrow pointing to the ink-drawn tank within the frame.

Artist: Peter Whyte (1905 – 1966, Canadian)

Title: Untitled

Date: 1962 – 1966

Medium: graphite on paper

Dimensions: 27.4 x 21.5 cm

Description: There are pencil drawings on both sides of this paper. Side 1: Two title texts that read: BLIND DATE. The upper version is more crudely sketched, while the lower version has relatively crisp lines. In both versions, each word occupies its own line. Side 2: Three male figures stand with their backs to the viewer. All carry a suitcase in their (and the viewer's) right hand and a small bag in their left hand. They appear at varying distances from the viewer.
