

Above Mount Assiniboine #1

<https://archives.whyte.org/en/permalink/artifactthr.05.01>

Artist:	Rene Thibault (1947 –)
Title:	Above Mount Assiniboine #1
Date:	2009
Medium:	watercolour on paper
Dimensions:	38.0 x 58.0 cm
Description:	Predominant colours are pink, blue, purple, green and brown. The painting is dominated by the pyramidal-shaped Mt. Assiniboine and the icefield below it. It appears to be an aerial view of sunrise on the mountain. The foreground is comprised of rocks showing through a snow-covered approach to the mountain peak. The rocks are various shades of very dark blue, lighter blue and brown. To the viewer's left the snow is tinged in various shades of pink as the morning light strikes it and the view to the right is still in the blue shades of shadow. The artist's signature in white is in this area. The middle of the painting is the pink glow of the sun on snow with some shaded snow and rocks still showing to the viewer's right. The top-half is a snow-covered Mt. Assiniboine with brown rock bands; viewer's right in the sun's light and viewer's left in the shade. Beyond the mountain are hills and valleys of pink, blue and green. The sky is a very deep shade of purple and blue.

Cowboy Hat

<https://archives.whyte.org/en/permalink/artifact103.04.1052>

Title:	Cowboy Hat
Date:	1974
Material:	felt; fabric; thread; paper; glue
Dimensions:	12.2 x 31.0 cm
Description:	A well-worn, light brown, felt cowboy hat with a crease in the the crown and a turned-up brim on both sides. The sweatband is missing, in its stead are the remnants of thread and glue with holes punched in at intervals where a cord is threaded through so the hat will stay on the head. There is an oval of white glue on the inside crown where a label may have been. There is also the remnants of a paper label from Smithbilt hats (2.3x1.0cm wide) in white with blue outline and lettering "BILT". There are three brands marked on the hat: Albert Johnston's, on the back, of an "R and half-circle" (2.4cm); from the front, viewer's right, a "Y" (3.2x3.0cm wide) with a straight line underneath (the threaded gold cord is tied directly under this); on the opposite side, viewer's left, is a drawing of a broken ski pole (2.5x2.8cm wide) that is Erling Strom's brand. There are chew marks on the brim, a large one 6.0 long and up to 1.0cm deep, 4.0cm to the left of this is another chew mark 0.50cm and a tear 1.0cm.
