

Along Lake Louise

<https://archives.whyte.org/en/permalink/artifactwri.03.02>

Artist: Maisie Wride

Title: Along Lake Louise

Date: n.d.

Medium: pastel on board
