

MAKE ME A STAR

Plea of Thousands Who Storm Gates of Hollywood Yearly

HOLLYWOOD— NAME OF MAGIC AND DISPAIR

Debutante and dishwasher—plow-pusher and ribbon clerk—burning with the fires of ambition, the desire for fame and wealth—all make Hollywood their goal!

Thousands dream of it—pray for it—pay for it—"Make Me a Star" they cry but how many meet with success?

What are the requisites that make old women and young girls' hearts flutter—that rekindle the spark of romance in the hearts of men?

Is it personality—good looks—charm—sex attraction that makes a star? Or is it just plain luck?
