EVENING PROGRAM

July 26, 27 and 28, at 7.30 p.m.

1. Bow and Arrow Contests.
2. Tug-o'-War on Ponies.
3. Indian Pony War Dance.
4. War Dance—Sun Dance—Chicken Dance—Deer Dance, etc.
5. Songs by the Tribe. The harmony and music taken from nature, depicting it as the Indians see and hear water falls, wind, trees, day and the night, sun and moon.
6. See this wonderful picture of 100 years ago, "An Indian Village."

The evening programmes are perhaps the most interesting of any. Native dances dating back hundreds of years. Indian Pony War Dance with many other dances accompanied by Indian composed music of native voices, depicting running water, wind, hight, the moon and stars; such weird harmony that it holds intent interest to the finish.

ADMISSION:

Adults, 50c. — Children, 25c.
