BANFF DOG RACING CODE

In the interest of good sportmanship, an appreciation of the historic and gallant part played by the Sleigh Dog in the development of the great North-West, and with a desire to further perpetuate and develop the Sleigh Dog the Banff Winter Sports' Association have formulated and adopted the following rules to be known as

"THE BANFF DOG RACING CODE."

1. Races to be open to the world.
2. A nominal entry fee of $1.00 to be paid by all entrants before starting in each race.
3. The course of each race shall be arranged annually by the committee.
4. The races shall be known as "The Banff Dog Races."
5. Teams in races of ten miles or more shall be of any number of dogs, sleigh and harness to be of any style. Special rules governing shorter races may be adopted at any time.
6. Drivers shall not be changed during the race.
7. Each team shall finish the race with the same dogs, and no others, with which they started the race.
8. No dog shall be allowed to enter any race until a competent official has decided that the animal is in a fit physical condition for the contest.
9. A racing card will be presented to each driver, with his name and a description of the dogs in his team printed thereon, which must be handed to the judges at the conclusion of the race.
10. No driver shall attempt to take the lead of any other team on the trail until the rear of his sleigh has cleared by a distance of at least ten feet the lead dog of the team he is attempting to pass.
11. Cruelty or any harsh treatment of dogs shall subject the driver to disqualification from any and all races.
12. The driver of each team will be supplied with a number, for identification purposes, which must be displayed conspicuously by him at all times during a race.
13. No driver shall interfere, annoy or molest any opposing team or driver in any way whatever. Violation of this rule will subject the driver to disqualification.
14. All complaints must be made to the judges.
15. Judges shall have absolute charge and control of the races.
16. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the judges.
17. All races shall be held on the day and hour set, regardless of weather conditions, and shall not be postponed unless by a decision of two-thirds of the executive committee of the Association in favor of such postponement.
18. The team covering the course in the best time will be declared the winner, the team covering the course in the second best time will be declared second, and so forth; the result to be decided by the time the lead dog crosses the finishing line.
19. The presentation of trophies, cups and prizes will be made to the owners of the winning teams, through the drivers.
