

Miss Dahlia Schagel, Carnival Queen, 1925

Banff Winter Carnival

BANFF, ALBERTA

February 7th to 14th, 1925

PROGRAMME of Events and Attractions

---

Changes of this Programme will be made
according to weather conditions and entries.

---

N. K. LUXTON,
President.

GEO. E. HUNTER,
Sec'y-Treas.

WHAT TO DO

---

In addition to the many sporting events which will take place during the Carnival, the following amusements and pastimes may be enjoyed daily by all:

Swimming at Government Baths (Hot Sulphur Water). Skating. Snoe-Shce-ing. Ski-Running. Ski-Jumping. Ski-Joring. Tobogganing. Trap-Shooting. Sleighing. Fancy and Art Skating. Dancing. Etc., etc.

Illuminated Ice Palace. Maze.

CURLING

The Banff Bonspiel will be held from Monday, February 9th until Saturday, February 14th, in conjunction with the Carnival.

The famous Banff Toboggan Slide will be open throughout the Carnival. Do not fail to try this thrilling sport.

A well organized "Fun-of-the-Carnival" will be held each day in the Brewster Hall. This is a feature intended to fill in the times between the major events, as well as providing amusements for those who find following the sporting programme in its entirety, too strenuous.

Specially prepared buffalo sandwiches will be served free each day at the Hall.

A Grand Parade of 800 people will take place twice during the Carnival, paying court to the Carnival Queen while she sits on her ice throne at the Ice Palace Maze.
