SANDERS

A Merry Christmas
Tommy Taylor

"Heigh Ho! The wind and The rain"
SANDERS

With love wishing you a joyful Christmas.

I may not grasp thee by the hand this morning
So this small messenger must bear my love,
And tell thee softly that my heart is asking
Rich treasure for thee from God's store above.

HAPPY BE YOUR CHRISTMAS!

Copyright 1875 by J. P. Jones & Co.

With glad Tidings

Christ has come!
Oh let the tidings
Sweep through heav'n and earth and sea.
Christ has come to break our fetters
And to set the captives free
He would sweep from God's creation
All that ruins all that mars,
Spoil the spoiler of his trophies
Shout for joy, ye morning stars!

A Dyeing Time

The fall and winter season is always a busy time in these works. Many things of the individual and the home call for dyeing and cleaning.

We are equipped to clean, press or dye about every conceivable article of wearing apparel of either sex, and everything in the house from a lace curtain to a woollen blanket.
