

Photos by

NICHOLAS MORANT
P. O. BOX 66,
KAMLOOPS, B. C.

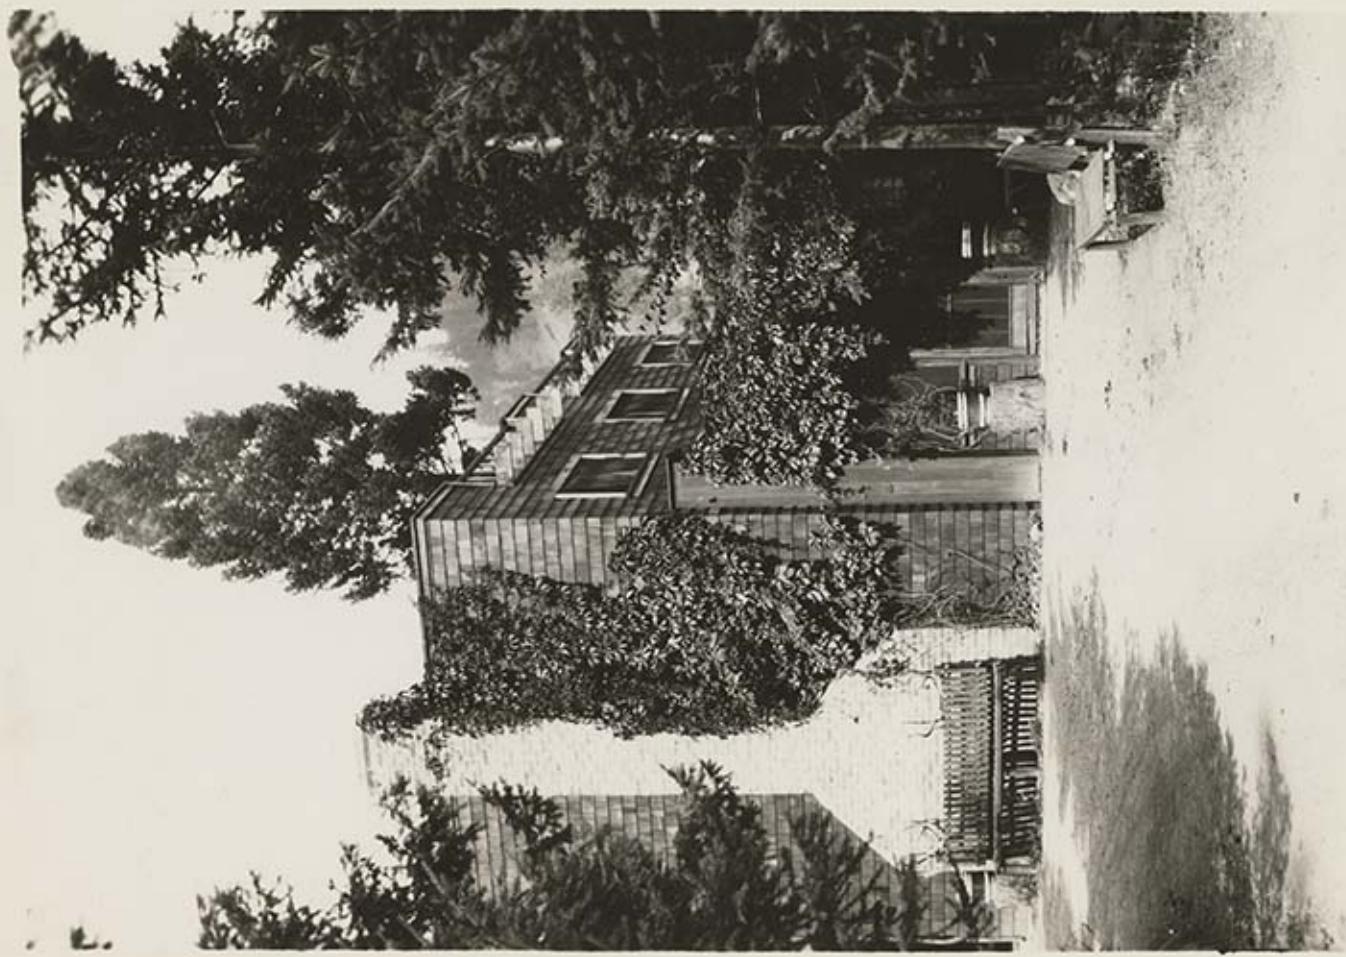

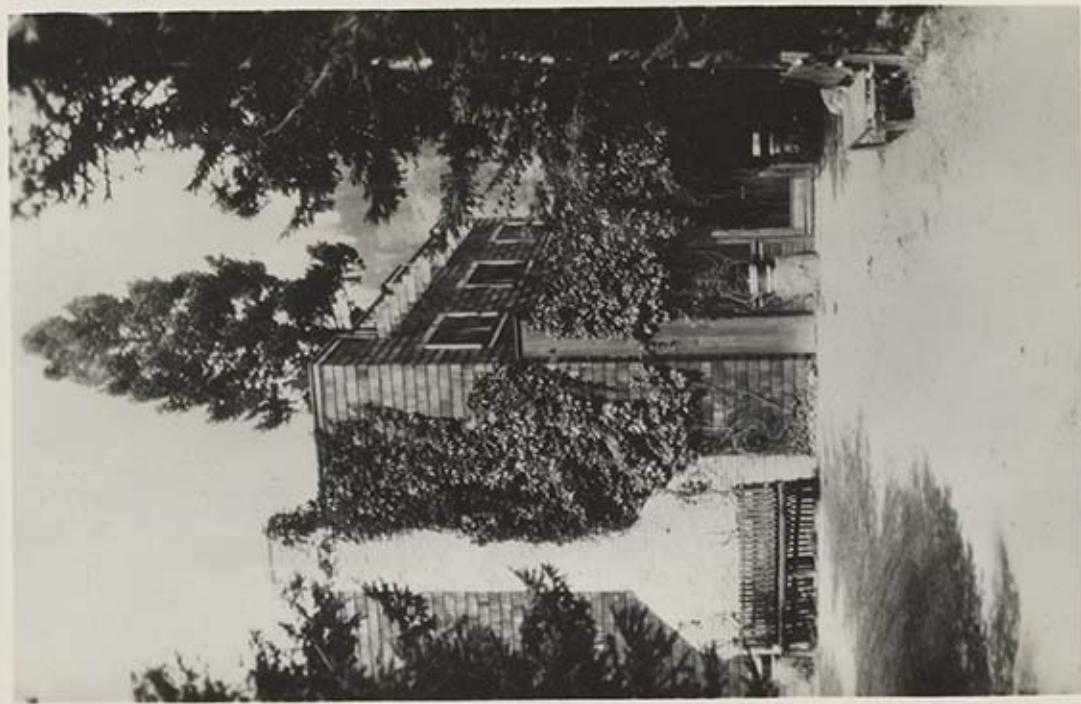

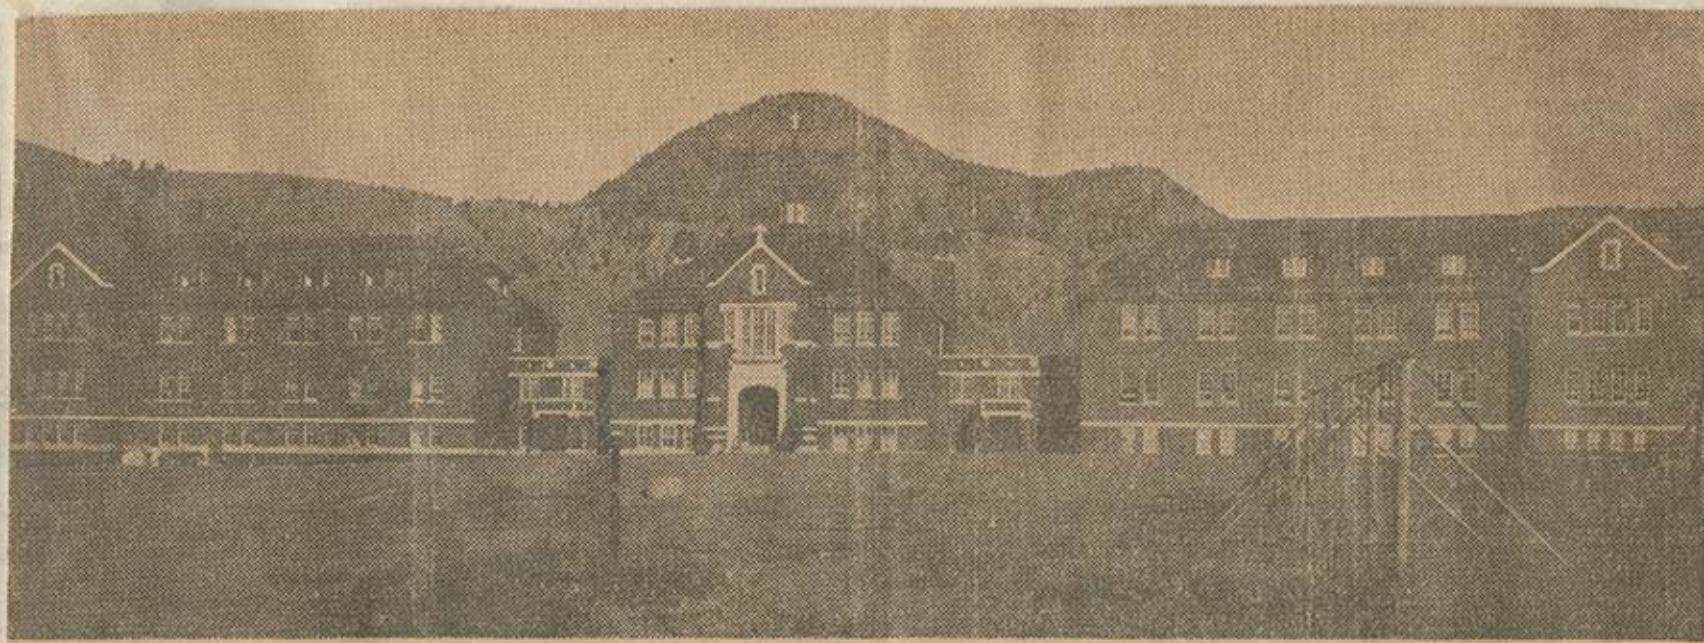

—Photo by Morant, Kamloops

NEW INDIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL AT KAMLOOPS

This building was erected at a cost of over $230,000, and will accommodate 250 pupils. It has every modern convenience, electrically equipped laundry, sewing-rooms. The right-hand wing was built in 1923, the centre in 1925, and the last wing is just completed. It was in this wing that Joe Rigby was killed by a falling scaffolding.

